Dear Colleagues:

What a musically exhilarating month October has been! For two consecutive weekends, more than 260 students representing over 36 studios brought contemporary music alive in our Conejo Valley! Many thanks to our wonderful festival chairs, Mike Preddy, Kim Munday and Emily Wu for making our Contemporary Festivals possible. We are grateful for our panel of esteemed judges, Charles Asche, Hui Wu and Frank Huang, who heighten our teaching with their insightful comments. Thank you to all participating teachers for preparing your students so well! We look forward to hearing our winners perform at the Gold Medal Festival at the Scherr Forum Theatre on November 10!

I want to take this opportunity to extend our deepest gratitude to Kim Munday, who has tirelessly served as the Chair of our Advanced Contemporary for the last 8 years. As of this month, Kim will be transitioning her Chair to Emily Wu. Kim, you have joyfully extended to our branch countless hours of sacrificial labor to make our Advanced Contemporary Festival possible. Along with our students and families, we thank you, Kim, for giving our students the opportunity to shine while creating indelible memories that will impact them for a lifetime! We are indeed grateful for Emily Wu's willingness to step into the position of Chair. With Emily's impeccable organizational skills and leadership qualities, we are most confident that she will assume her chairmanship with excellence.

In the midst of your busy teaching schedule, please mark your calendar for our Holiday Brunch at Danna Southwell's home on Thursday, December 5th at 10 am. For the third consecutive years, we are thrilled to have Mike and His Jazz Trio provide our holiday entertainment – most fitting for this year's MTAC Theme of "Collaborate, Create and Celebrate." Not only will Mike's trio musically usher us into our Holiday Season, but we will be inspired to collaborate, create and celebrate at the same time! Please be on the lookout for an email from Carol Lancaster, our beloved party organizer who makes our Holiday Brunch so fun and memorable!

As we both count our blessings this Thanksgiving Season, you are all among the greatest blessings in our lives. The both of us have grown so much as teachers because your dynamic and positive influence in our lives. "As iron sharpens iron", you have sharpened us both in innumerable ways. A Blessed Thanksgiving to you and your loved ones!

ASCAP Submissions: Do the Right Thing.

Did you know that US Copyright Law states that composers must receive a royalty when their work is performed? ASCAP protects the rights of its members by licensing and distributing royalties for the performances of copyrighted works.

ASCAP members make their living writing music, many of whom are also MTAC members. ASCAP exists to ensure that music creators are paid when their works are performed publicly. Rental or purchase of sheet music does not authorize its public performance.

MTAC has an ASCAP Copyright License, and covers each and every MTAC member for all branch and individual performances. However, in order for ASCAP members to receive royalties from the performances of their works, we must submit programs to the state office. This is where I need your help.

Throughout the 2019-2020 season, I'll collect TWO copies of each program and send them to the MTAC state office on June 30. As a reminder, these can be studio recitals, masterclasses, festival, and any other performances.

For the convenience of our branch members, there are several ways to submit your programs:

1. Send them to or drop them off at my home: Caitlin Boruch, 1258 Rotella Street in Newbury Park, CA 91320.
2. Give them to me if you see me in any capacity (MTAC festivals, performances, around town). It is the responsibility of the festival chairs to turn in the programs, but at the festivals where my students perform, I'm happy to arrange to pick up the two copies of every performance.
3. Collect them throughout the season and hand them to me at the MTAC luncheon and general meeting in May.
4. Email them in PDF format to caitlinwb@gmail.com

Thank you for your help in ensuring our composers collect the income they have earned.

Review by Fred Beerstein..

Pianist, Susan Ellinger presented a concert and seminar sponsored by the Music Teacher's Association of California Conejo Valley Branch at the Hillcrest Center of the Arts on Thursday, October 24, 10 AM. The program explored a program of works exploring Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven and their influence on Claude Debussy's refined and elegant impressionistic French 'classicism'. The paired pieces were presented as couplets without interrupting applause. Ellinger allowed the paired impressionist pieces to show connection and homage to the earlier paired work. The performances were exhilarating as well as thoughtful. Among the pieces performed d'anacprie (The Hills of Anacapri) Debussy paired with the Piano Sonata No. 18 in D major, K 576, Mozart. We also heard La Cathédrale engloutie (The Sunken Cathedral), Debussy paired with the Piano Sonata in A Flat Major, Op. 110, Beethoven. This listener walked on air following the conclusion of the performance.

You may contact Susan Ellinger at susanellinger@gmail.com.

I am Ned Klein, a piano tuner from Moorpark. Sheryl Toney recommended I email you about the release of my new book, a collection of 36 stories about interesting and/or famous musicians that I have worked with. I have attached a screenshot of the listing at my publisher. Sheryl thought you might consider posting an announcement of the release in the MTAC newsletter, along with the screenshot.

You can find out more about the book from my website at

VOCE update
branch audition February 15, 2015 at CLU. (Fred Beerstein)
Chamber Music including Voice Orchestral Instruments (and pianists!)

Dear Teachers,

The VOCE Application Portal will open on November 1, 2019. Refer to the VOCE Guidelines found on your Teacher Portal for information about important dates, categories and eligibility requirements.

Sign up online <https://new.mtac.org/app/program/VOCE/>

This year, the application period dates have changed, so please review the deadlines below.

Enrollment Period:

The VOCE enrollment period is from November 1 to December 1, 2019. No applications can be created after December 1, at 11:59 P.M. You will be able to make edits to applications up until December 15, 2019.

You can add a student to your Student Roster at this time. Once the student is added to your roster, you can create the VOCE application.

Proof of Age:

MTAC requires proof of age of the student to be provided by the parent (or student if over 18) by November 1, 2019. Since VOCE has different age divisions, the ages of all participants must be submitted and verified before the deadline. Click here to see more information about the verification process.

Payment Period:

Parents are able to make a payment once the application is created and the age has been verified. The deadline to make the payment is December 15, 2019.

A Note about Arias:

Please note that Arias will not be permitted in the Intermediate Age Division for Solo Voice performers. Review the VOCE guidelines to see the full Solo Voice repertoire requirements.

For additional help please contact your VOCE Branch Chair or Branch President.

If your Branch does not host its own audition, the VOCE State Chairs, Tina Yoo, VOCE State Chair South, or Kathy You Wilson, VOCE State Chair North, will help your Branch coordinate with a neighboring Branch to host an audition.

Sincerely,
programs@mtac.org
