Dear Teachers:

We hope that you are all rested from a rejuvenating summer and are ready for a new exciting year of music making!

We want to take this opportunity to thank FRED BEERSTEIN for stepping in as our Branch's Newsletter Editor and VOCE branch chair. THANK YOU, Fred! We also are excited for to have MICHAEL WEST as our new Bach Branch Chair. As a branch, we are so thankful for EVERY MEMBER TEACHER who gives sacrificially of his or her time, talent and resources to make all these wonderful branch programs possible, along with the smooth operations of the branch. We are so proud and blessed to be members of MTAC Conejo Valley!!

This year, Ruth and I will be attempting our Branch's first pilot Sight-Reading Festival. Because this new branch program is in its infancy, we will limit participation to piano students only. Hopefully, all disciplines can be involved in the future years. For more information, please read the attached synopsis. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions that you may have regarding this festival. Very candidly, we are both learning as we go! We are so grateful for the mentorship of Joanna Ezrin who spearheaded San Fernando West Valley's sight-reading festival. She will be our very pilot festival's first adjudicator!

For teachers who will be participating in CM, please plan on attending our very first MANDATORY meeting on September 26 at 9am at Danna Southwell's house located at 1421 Feather Avenue, Thousand Oaks. PLEASE BE ON TIME and sign in so that your attendance can be recorded. A make-up session on Saturday, September 28 at 10 am will be offered at Danna Southwell's house for those who cannot make it to the September 26th meeting. Looking forward to seeing you all on September 26!

Registration for the 2019 Women Composers Festival is now open!

The festival will be held on Sunday, September 22, at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Thousand Oaks. The first recital will begin at 2:15 or 2:30, and we will go on from there. This festival is open to students of all instruments and voice, and of all levels. Chamber music as well as solo pieces are welcome. The only requirement is that the piece(s) be written by a woman composer. Memorization is optional and there is no time limit for pieces. Students will introduce the composer before performing. Three to four sentences are enough, but more is also ok. Teachers should of course vet what their students are going to say. Students should dress up, adhering to our branch's recital guidelines.

When registering your students, please be sure to be accurate and complete when listing the dates of the composer. Examples of format are 1700-1750, or for living composers, b. 1972. Sometimes the dates are unknown or approximate - for example the composer Anna Bon di Venezia was probably born in 1740, but after 1767 we don't know what happened to her, although it is pretty clear she lived past that date. So, her dates would be listed as 1740-after 1767. Please do not make up dates. Do the research, or have your students do the research. If I have to do the research or contact you to find out the correct dates, I will be very annoyed. (And you won't like me when I am annoyed.)

The registration deadline is Friday, September 6 at 5:00 pm. The registration fee is $14 per student. Teachers will pay through our branch's website. I am just getting this information to Tachell, so please wait awhile before submitting payment. The deadline for payment is September 13. You can, however, go ahead and register your students at this link:

<https://forms.gle/83kJACsuhKezyXzGA> or on the website.

I am looking forward to another interesting and enjoyable festival! If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Ann Erwin at aeflute@gmail.com or 805-494-6863.

SHARED NOTES

Marie Jaëll

(1846-1925)

Concerto in F Major

(1882)

dedicated to Jules Delsart

for violoncello and piano (previously unpublished)

Available now at Sheetmusicplus.com

Edited by Wendy Velasco from the original orchestral manuscripts housed in the Bibliothèque Nationale et Universitaire de Strasbourg

About the composer:

Marie Jaëll (née Trautmann) was a French pianist and composer who lived from 1846-1925. Marie Trautmann was a gifted pianist who attended the Paris Conservatory. In 1862 she was awarded a first prize. She concertized throughout Europe and was the first pianist to perform all of the Beethoven Piano Sonatas. She married fellow pianist Alfred Jaëll in 1866. The two toured Europe, Russia, and the United States. Alfred died in 1882 when Marie was 35 years old—incidentally the same year that this concerto was composed. After her husband's death, she studied musical composition regularly with Camille Saint-Saëns and was close friends with Franz Liszt who, along with Saint-Saëns, performed her pieces for four hands. Marie Jaëll was one of the first women admitted into the Société des Compositeurs de Musique. Her manuscripts are housed in the Bibliothèque Nationale et Universitaire de Strasbourg.

Notes from the editor:

For many months I've been busy making the first published edition of a cello concerto by Marie Jaëll. It's lots of fun to play, has beautiful melodies, and enough technical challenges to make it interesting. I hope you will check it out for yourself or an advanced student (about Saint-Saëns level)

MUSIC STUDENTS'
SERVICE LEAGUE WEST LA

Dear Advocates of Harmony and Unity,

We are the current co-presidents of the Music Students' Service League (MSSL) of the Music Teachers' Association of California- West Los Angeles (MTAC-WLA). This year, we are also co-chairing MTAC-WLA's 12th Daniel Pearl World Music Days Concert.

Daniel Pearl, a Wall Street Journal reporter, was kidnapped and murdered by extremists in Pakistan in 2002. His death sparked a global conversation about the need for building bridges between cultures. Daniel, a gifted musician and writer, is seen as a symbol of hope. His family and friends created the Daniel Pearl Foundation to inspire unity, promote harmony through humanity, and encourage empathy.

We would like your help in spreading the word about our concert to the members of your branch. We would welcome applications from students in your branch to audition to perform in the concert and would also appreciate your members' and students' attendance at the concert.

If you are interested in hosting a non-competitive VOCE event, contact your

VOCE Branch Chair, Fred Beerstein fbeerstein@gmail.com
